

I`m living in a world of harmony listening to the words of fantasy come on and hear my song of destiny I`m lonely in a land, that should be free dreaming with my heart that can`t be free because I`m looking for a way, I just can`t see no no - no no - just can`t see

I`m looking for a world of harmony and I`m thinking that words may should be free feeling in my soul this melody that you are lonely in a land that should be free can`t believe, - can`t believe that you`re not free

no no - no no - that you`re not free no no - no no - you`re not free

cry on – cry on - cry on (repeat)
